

K-Love Christian Radio Station is the only one our family listens to and we do not want to take a chance on losing our frequency of this station. K-Love benefits everyone who listens to it, not only in changing lives everyday with the positive message, but the freedom of advertising is refreshing. We don't want our children listening to anything else, but K-LOVE. Please don't do anything that could.